The Evansville Advertiser says: In solid Kentucky the man most talked of for the Democratic nomination for President is Senator McDonald, and this is not without the fact that he has made his mark in the person of Mr. Carlisle, who is greatly popular in connection with the campaign.

Mr. Thomas, Esq., a newspaper at the New Market, N. Y., while, was suddenly deprived of reason and memory on the site. Mr. Thomas is regarded as one of the pure men in Kentucky. He never seemed to have been in the slightest doubt that he did a wrong either by word or deed a most remarkable man. He is about one-half North Carolina.

A new weekly paper, Democratic politics, will be started in Evansville about the 1st of June. It will be edited by Jim L. McFarland and published by a stock company. It is to be a weekly paper, and is to be published on the 1st and 15th of each month.

The evening before his death he gave a performance at Hart's Museum, complicated by an attack of rheumatism, and died about noon.

The appointment of Dr. H. B. Post, of Louisville, to the Superintendency of the Lincolne Asylum, at Ashland, is a compliment. He fills the position most satisfactorily.

The Republican County Convention endorsed Mr. H. R. N. Goss, for delegate to the forthcoming Cuban convention. This is the oldest man of the party in the State, and we like to see all parties put their best foot forward in this convention.

Mr. Hubbard is not only a man of deep capacity, but is bold, generous and outspoken, with a host of friends and adherents and has the respect of his political opponents.

The Louisville Sunday Argus says that Hon. James A. McKenzie, several of State, has been elected to the Legislature as a member of Congress from the Henderson district. If Mr. McKenzie cherishes this aspiration, he is making a wise and judicious preparation for his long term in Congress, and has far, far, done well. He ought to be given a second term without opposition. In his own party, Mr. McKenzie should be a safe bet.
